

Computing with CISCO

Edinburgh College

Venues

Milton Road Campus

Content

This course is a stepping stone towards a career in a specialist computing science subject. During this course, you will learn a diverse range of essential computing industry skills from troubleshooting computer problems to software development and CISCO Networking.

This course is an ideal choice if you are not yet sure where your strengths lie or what area of computing you wish to specialise in.

Discover dynamic skills as you develop your knowledge of IT and achieve your career ambitions. This unique course allows you to explore different disciplines in the computer science industry before deciding on a specialist subject like Software development at 2nd year HND at Edinburgh college or another computing subject at University.

This is a hands-on and practical course that will enhance your employability skills.

What you will learn:

Computer hardware and systems; Operating systems; Software development; CISCO Networking ICDN1; Troubleshooting computer problems; Team working; Network security concepts; Ethical hacking; Linux cmd.

Start Date

August

Qualification

HNC

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

1 year

Department

Computing

Entry Requirements

3 Highers including Maths, Computing Science or a science subject. Or relevant national qualifications at SCQF Level 6. Interview. Skills assessment.

SCQF Level

7

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

«Address»

Website

www.edinburghcollege.ac.uk