Content

DFN Project SEARCH is a business-led, one-year transition-to-employment programme designed specifically for young people with learning disabilities and autism. Based within Lanarkshire hospital sites, the programme provides immersive, real-world work experience combined with tailored education and employability training.

Students complete three 10-week work placements across different hospital departments, gaining a wide range of transferable, marketable skills. Alongside this, participants complete around 800 hours of skill development, supported by classroom-based learning focused on employability and independence.

Curriculum areas include:

Work Experience and Employability Skills; Communication and Teamwork; Interview Preparation; Personal Development and Confidence Building; Health and Safety in the Workplace; CV Development and Job Applications; Money Management.
