

Journey to Employment

West Lothian College

Content

Journey to Employment aims to help you to secure employment. Once on the course, you will spend allocated time on-site with local partnership organisations. During this period, you will have the opportunity to try a variety of work placements, and you will also attend West Lothian College to gain SQA qualifications in Employability and Customer Service.

Companies who have previously supported the college's students with work placements are Smyths, The Chain Runner, British Heart Foundation, J-Teq and Home Start offering a wide variety of experience to learners.
