Social Sciences (Level 6)

Newbattle Abbey College

Content

The National Certificate (NC) in Social Sciences is a full-time course designed to develop your knowledge of society, human behaviour and the world around you.

Whether you're a school leaver looking to build on your qualifications or an adult learner interested in progressing to higher study or employment, this course offers a strong academic foundation in the humanities and social sciences.

You'll explore key ideas and debates across a range of subjects, develop critical thinking and communication skills, and prepare for further study at Higher National or degree level.

Content:
Psychology, Criminology, Sociology, Child Development, Literature and Communications.
