

Manufacturing Engineering (Level 6)

West Lothian College

Content

This course will give you the essential knowledge and practical skills to move forward in the exciting world of Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering. If you love working with tools, solving problems, and creating things, this is the perfect course to kickstart your career in engineering.

The course includes:

Communication; Mathematics: Technician 1; Engineering: Applying Information Technology; Engineering Project; Computer Aided Draughting (CAD) for Engineering; Engineering Design; Engineering Dimensional Control; Engineering Materials; Engineering Workshop Skills; Material Removal Practice: Milling; Material Removal Practice: Turning; Engineering Material Removal Principles.

Start Date

August

Qualification

NC

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

1 year

Department

Engineering

Entry Requirements

National 5 English, Maths and a technological subject; or NQ Engineering Practice (Level 5); or other relevant national qualifications at SCQF Level 5. Interview and aptitude test.

SCQF Level

6

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Progression Routes

NC Level 6 and HNC/D is possible.

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

Almondvale Crescent
Livingston
West Lothian
EH54 7EP

Website

www.west-lothian.ac.uk