Content

This course provides young people with the opportunity to build confidence, challenge themselves both in the classroom and the outdoors and gain a good all-round set of qualifications and experience that can take them on to work or other areas of study.

This course allows young people to study a range of subjects at SCQF level 5 as well as achieving their Duke of Edinburgh Award at either Bronze or Silver.

Whether you are a current student, or you are new to us, this course will help prepare you for your future by developing your digital skills, self-management skills, your ability to connect with yourself and others.

This course has a Learning Mentor attached to subjects where students may need extra support in class to complete coursework correctly and a Student Development Worker is also attached to the course for part of the time to help any students who need some help with social or emotional issues.
