Content

Year 1:

If you haven't studied German before you will take German 1A, an intensive language course. If you are more confident in German, you will take German 1B, which covers language, literature and culture from 1800 to the present day.

Year 2:

You will take German 2, which builds on your knowledge of German language and literature from Year 1.

Year 3:

You will spend your third year working or studying in a German-speaking country.

Year 4:

You will take language classes in essay writing, spoken German and translation. You can also choose from a range of literary courses, from medieval epic to contemporary German-Jewish literature.
