

International Business with Languages Pathway

Glasgow Caledonian University

Content

Pathway students enrol on the undergraduate BA (Hons) International Business with Languages Pathway course at Glasgow Caledonian University. In the first two years, you will be studying HND Business at Glasgow City College with the opportunity to progress to Year 3 of the degree on campus at Glasgow Caledonian University.

International businesses across sectors recognise the impact that global issues can have on their bottom line. Business graduates who understand regional and cultural differences are in demand as industries seek to find sustainable and ethical ways of working that have a positive impact on profit, people and the planet.

The International Business with Languages degree from Glasgow Caledonian University brings you practical and research-based business and language teaching. You will have the opportunity to master two foreign languages including French, Spanish, German or Italian, to study abroad with your chosen languages via international study exchange, and to gain experience in the business, management and leadership skills you will use throughout your international business career.
