Content

Understanding how to manage, motivate and reward the people of an organisation can make a decisive contribution in the success of a business or organisation.

The BA Business and Human Resource Management has been developed in partnership with industry, employers and professional associations to equip you with the knowledge and skills that business leaders look for.

Not only will you learn how to successfully manage and organise a business, you'll also gain core skills in HRM, including workforce management and development.

The BA Business and Human Resource Management is recognised by the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD).

Upon successful completion of the course you will become eligible for Associate Membership of the CIPD.
