

History and French

Open University in Scotland

Content

Combining History with French will provide you with a truly unique understanding of the history and cultures of European and North American countries from the Middle Ages to the present. By the time you graduate, you will be able to communicate fluently and competently with French speakers. The study of a modern language can be the key to the global workplace.

Allows you to explore a wide range of historical topics, periods and places.

Gives you an understanding of what it means to be a historian, understanding history as a systematic and reflective discipline.

Helps you become proficient in French, reaching level C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Develops advanced knowledge of cultures that use French, and intercultural communication competence.

Start Date

October, February

Qualification

Degree

Study Method

Distance and Flexible learning

Award Title

BA Hons

Course Length

Flexible

Faculty

General

Department

Arts and Humanities

Entry Requirements

There are no formal qualifications required to study this degree. Computer and internet access required.

If you're new to study or to the OU, it is recommended that you start with a course at Level 1.

SCQF Level

10

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Progression Routes

Many of these skills translate very smoothly into the modern workplace, which is increasingly concerned with effective knowledge management and communication technology.

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

Drumsheugh Gardens
Edinburgh
EH3 7QJ

Website

www.open.ac.uk/scotland/