Content

As people live longer, demand for qualified workers in health and social care continues to grow across our region, Scotland and the rest of the developed world.

As a result, there are opportunities for work in nursing, social care, health promotion and related fields across the NHS, local authorities and private companies.

This course is designed to provide you with practical skills and in-depth knowledge in the fields of health and social care.

You will study a range of SQA units specific to Health and Social Care.
