Content

If you're interested in a career in the uniformed or emergency services, such as the Police, Fire or Ambulance Service, the Armed Forces or Prison Service, this course is a great place to start.

The course has excellent partnerships, working with the police, army, coastguard and fire service. You'll make regular visits to the various services base locations, and hear from guest lecturers in the classroom to make sure you're well informed in your specific area of interest. You will need to demonstrate a good level of fitness for a career in the uniformed services and we will expect all applicants to have a good level of physical fitness.

Here is some of what you will be doing:

Psychology; Developing personal fitness; First Aid; Health, fitness and wellbeing; Social Issues; Engaging in the Community/Volunteering; Outdoor Activities; Teambuilding; and building transferrable skills.
