

Construction and Rail Operations (NPA)

Edinburgh College

Venues

Granton Campus

Content

This course is designed for students who want to expand their knowledge of construction such as general building, road maintenance, brickwork and railway engineering. You will also gain the NPA 5 Highways Maintenance - Kerbs and Channels award accredited through SQA.

This course offers practical, transferable skills and theory knowledge of the Construction Industry to help you find an apprenticeship or further study.

Content includes:

ICT Skills; Lay Modular Pavement; Reinstatement Excavation and Highways Surfaces; Railway routine manual maintenance; Duties within the Rail Industry; Preparing Resources for railways; Operate a Powered Tool and Equipment; Search for Underground Services; Sign, Light and Guard the Work Area; Lay Kerbs and Channels; and, Workplace Health, Safety and Welfare.

Start Date

August

Qualification

Other

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

1 year

Department

Construction

Entry Requirements

2 subjects at National 4 including English or Maths and Design and Manufacture, or Intro to Construction, or other relevant national qualifications at SCQF Level 4.

SCQF Level

5

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

«Address»

Website

www.edinburghcollege.ac.uk