

Live Events Broadcast and TV Production

Edinburgh College

Venues

Sighthill Campus

Content

programme is designed for those who want to learn by doing, with a focus on practical activities, including coverage of live events and industry-based projects.

Whether you want to work in live television, live streaming, sports or music event filming, or digital media, this course will equip you with technical expertise, creative skills, and real-world problem-solving abilities to succeed in high-pressure live environments.

You'll work with professional-grade equipment, produce live content, and gain direct experience in a fast-paced, exciting world of live events.

What you will learn:

Live broadcasting and streaming; Multi-camera production; Live audio production; Lighting for live events; Graphics and overlays; Onsite production management; and, Post-production and content editing.

Qualification

HND

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

2 years

Department

Media, Music and Sound Production

Entry Requirements

2 Highers preferably including English, Maths or a science subject, or relevant national qualifications at SCQF Level 6. Interview.

SCQF Level

8

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

«Address»

Website

www.edinburghcollege.ac.uk