Playwork and Childcare (Level 5)

South Lanarkshire College

Content

The National 5 Childcare and Playwork course is designed to progress your learning in childcare, early education and the process of play.

Using a variety of innovative and forward thinking techniques, you will be able to develop a strong knowledge base on early education theories as practices, whilst also developing the underpinning knowledge of play and the importance of it for children.

Our experienced lecturing team will guide and support you through the units, helping you think reflectively on your practice and development whilst also using current industry standards to ensure you are well equipped to progress in the exciting sector.

Early education is a critical aspect of child development and you will learn why this is the case, as well as factors that can influence it. Practical applications of the knowledge you learn will be used in class.

You will cover a variety of topics including:

Mental Health; Contemporary families; Play in ELC; Child Development; Reflective Practice; much more.
