Cumbernauld Campus

Content

The one-year BA Business and Leadership Degree is designed for individuals who currently hold an HNC* or HND level qualification, offering a flexible, blended-learning experience that fits around your work-life balance. This degree programme is delivered in conjunction with our partners at the University of the West of Scotland (UWS). If you are looking to upskill in business or enhance your team's expertise, this could be the perfect course for you. The programme will combine face-to-face activities, supported online sessions and flexible access to online resources. There will also be occasional in-person workshop / conference events, supported by industry guest speakers as part of this programme.
