Content

Japanese and Linguistics make an excellent joint honours choice by combining the study of a modern language in its cultural context and the expression and creation of meaning.

Year 1:
You will study Japanese 1, an introduction to Japanese grammar, and Modern East Asia, an introduction to modern East Asian history and culture.

Year 2:
You will study Japanese 2A and Japanese 2B, which will develop your written and spoken Japanese. You will also study Japanese history, culture and society in preparation for your year in Japan.

Year 3:
You will spend your third year in Japan where you will develop your language skills and start work on your dissertation.

Year 4:
You will continue to study Japanese language, history, culture and literature. You will also complete your dissertation.
