

Sports Coaching (Level 6)

West Lothian College

Content

The course is a combination of practical based units across a range of sports and theory which supports different elements of coaching.

When you complete the course, you'll earn a National Progression Award (NPA) at Level 6. This qualification is your launchpad to the future, giving you the skills, knowledge, and confidence to take your next big step forward.

On this course, you'll learn essential coaching skills, starting with understanding yourself, others, and the fundamentals of coaching.

You'll develop self-awareness to manage your roles and responsibilities as a coach, even under minimal supervision.

You'll also gain practical skills, like preparing safe physical environments and equipment, addressing participants' needs, and working effectively within a coaching team.
