History and French

Open University in Scotland

Content

By combining History with French you'll gain a good understanding of the history and cultures of European and North American countries from the later Middle Ages to contemporary times. This diploma will enable you to communicate competently with French speakers. In today's interconnected world, proficiency in a modern language opens doors to global opportunities. The name of your diploma, the Diploma of Higher Education in History and French, shows your capabilities in both disciplines.
