Content

Are you intrigued by the human mind and behaviour?

Join our PDA in Psychology at SCQF level 7, with options to study either or both of our dedicated modules, and explore the historical development of psychology since the 19th century, including the four major schools of thought that have influenced development, and the famous psychologists who have shaped this discipline.

Build the skills and knowledge needed to progress to a higher level of study or pursue employment in this fascinating field.

You will study the following core modules:

Psychology A: History and development of psychology; Psychology B: Explanation and research of psychological topics.
