Childhood Practice (validated by SSSC)

University of Strathclyde

Content

This is a work-based programme validated by the Scottish Social Services Council.

It is based on course elements detailed in the benchmark statements provided by QAA Education Studies, SCQF and the Standard for Childhood Practice.

The programme combines an increased understanding of theory with critical reflection on practice and aims to develop the research skills of practitioners for ongoing professional development. Formative assessment is a feature of all courses and assignments focus directly on workplace applications..
