DFN Project SEARCH (Level 4)

North East Scotland College

Venues

Aberdeen City Campus

Content

This is a one-year programme which sees participants, known as interns, who are registered students at North East Scotland College, spend time completing a City and Guilds qualification as well as embarking on a rotation of three work placements in various roles and departments within the University and or other local businesses. Interns will be based at the University of Aberdeen, King's Campus.

Interns will also complete a period of orientation prior to the start of the course to familiarise them with the programme and the University.
