

Working with Communities: An Introduction

Edinburgh College

Venues

Granton Campus

Content

Introduction to Working with Communities at SCQF Level 5 is a course that has been designed for those who would like to know more about providing support, advice and guidance for people in a Community Learning and Development (CLD) context, through this work, develop and gain knowledge and skills of working with people in a variety of community environments.

Aimed at people currently volunteering within the charity and third sector who have no formal qualifications, but are looking to improve their professional practice, and develop best practices within their working environment, may also be interested.

Start Date

August

Qualification

Other

Study Method

Part time (day)

Course Length

1 year

Department

Routes into Education or Employment

Entry Requirements

There are no formal entry requirements.

SCQF Level

5

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

«Address»

Website

www.edinburghcollege.ac.uk