Business and Law

Open University in Scotland

Content

Start your journey into business and law with this accessible and engaging certificate. You'll explore core business and management topics – like marketing, strategy, and financial planning – while building a practical understanding of civil justice and tort law. Through real-world case studies and interactive learning, you'll develop essential skills in problem-solving, communication, and critical thinking. Whether you're returning to education, exploring a new interest, or laying the groundwork for future study, this course gives you the tools to understand how organisations and legal systems work – and how they shape the world around us.
