Content

If you're curious about how the world works and have an interest in areas like history, criminal justice, sociology, politics, or psychology, this HND Social Sciences is the ideal choice for you.

Taught by a team of experts, this course dives into the study of people and society, helping you understand how Scotland and the UK have developed into what they are today. You'll explore a range of subjects while also gaining valuable, transferable skills that are essential for the workplace or further study.

Throughout the course, you'll learn to handle complex information, interpret statistics, and develop your research, analytical, and communication skills. You'll also enhance your critical thinking skills around social and cultural issues, equipping you to navigate real-world challenges, whether you're considering pursuing a degree or exploring a new career path.
