Content

Two perfect options to try if you would like to retrain or find out whether a career in Health and Social care, or in Childcare, is right for you. Taking place for just 1 day each week makes this the perfect way to fit in learning with your current commitments.

You'll study in a live and interactive online classroom and join students on our full-time Access to Care course.

Each course lasts for the whole academic year (August till May) and includes a range of Level 5 units. You will be taught by experienced staff, each of whom has years of experience working in healthcare professions and childcare settings. This could be the first step towards the rewarding career you've always imagined.
