

Law (Graduate Entry)

Abertay University

Content

Already have a degree and want to study law? This is the course for you.

This is a fast-track two-year undergraduate Law degree, available to graduates of any discipline. You'll gain a law degree condensed into two years instead of four, covering all the Law Society of Scotland required subjects. Along the way you'll enhance your CV with extracurricular activities like pro bono work.

You won't just study law, you'll be taught how to think like a lawyer. You'll explore the Scottish legal system, undertake practical assessments, present legal arguments during debates and mock court appearances (aka 'mooting').
