

Translation Studies

University of Edinburgh

Venues

Central Campus

Content

Drawing on an excellent range of staff expertise and library collections, as well as visiting speakers, you'll sharpen important skills, such as undertaking research and thinking analytically, writing commentaries and essays to deadline, and using a range of resources and presentation techniques.

An official member of the SDL University Partner Program, the MSc draws on the expertise of research-active teaching staff from across the School of Literatures, Languages and Cultures, as well as experts in Translation Studies.

Combining core courses with optional courses, research training, practical translation, and a dissertation will help you sharpen professional skills while broadening your understanding of issues relating to translation, such as gender, power relations, and religion.
