

Human Nutrition

University of Glasgow

Venues

Gilmorehill Campus

Content

Nutritional science is a subject of growing importance in many aspects of healthcare, lifestyle and industry. Accredited by the Association for Nutrition (AfN), this Human Nutrition degree aims to explore how our choices of foods affect the biochemical and physiological functions of cells and organs, and how our diets influence physical, mental and social health.

You can exit at the end of 9 months with PgDip Human Nutrition.

Start Date

September

Qualification

Postgraduate Master's

Study Method

Full time

Award Title

MSc MedSci

Course Length

12 months

Faculty

College of Medical, Veterinary and Life Sciences

Department

Medicine, Dentistry and Nursing

Entry Requirements

An Honours degree in a suitable science subject, or an ordinary degree in a highly relevant subject such as nutrition or dietetics from an institution recognised by the University Court.

You are required to provide two references, a full degree transcript and a personal statement with your application.

SCQF Level

11

Address

Glasgow
G12 8QQ

Website

www.gla.ac.uk