

Acting and Performance

Glasgow Kelvin College

Venues

West End Campus

Content

This course concentrates on the development of skills required for a career in the Acting and Performance sector.

As a way of practising and developing the necessary creative skills, you will get the opportunity to explore both devising techniques and a variety of textual genres.

Content:

Acting, Voice, Movement, Production, Physical Theatre, Theatre Styles, Text and Performance, Creating Devised Theatre, Leading a Workshop, Professional Development, Graded Unit.

Start Date

August

Qualification

HND

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

2 years

Department

Performance Arts

Entry Requirements

1 Higher; preferably English or Drama. Entry by audition. Applicants will be expected to perform two contrasting monologues. Interview.

SCQF Level

8

Progression Routes

Higher education throughout the UK. Employment based in performance or technical areas of Theatre and Television

Address

123 Flemington Street
Glasgow
Glasgow City
G21 4TD

Website

www.glasgowkelvin.ac.uk