Art and Design (Portfolio Development) (Level 6)

West Lothian College

Content

This course allows you to develop and learn in a style that will support a wide range of creative skills with the emphasis being on preparing for HNC and the eventual art college learning experience.

The course delivers knowledge based learning and practical skills in diverse subject areas, for example; drawing, painting, sculpture, media-handling, colour, printmaking, contextual studies, photography, digital media, video, sketchbook development, life drawing, introduction to contemporary art practice and core skills.

These are explored through project-based learning – this reinforces the connection and interaction between all aspects of the course.
