Content

The BA (Hons) Dance and Drama degree at Edinburgh College is an intensive industry training course delivered by Kingston University. Challenge your drama and dance potential as you emerge yourself in the art of dance through critical performance techniques. This is a university-level course that will ensure you are prepared to an industry-standard to progress into a career as a portfolio artist. As part of becoming a skilled practitioner you will critically engage in industry practices and learn how to take a simple performance idea and bring it to life.

You will develop a range of transferable skills to equip you for the demands of a competitive world. Performing Arts Studio Scotland (PASS) has exceptional theatre facilities including a PASS theatre that sits up to 120 people as well as dance and aerial studios. Immerse yourself in the art of dance and drama as you gain essential experience in professional environments and make crucial connections with industry professionals.
