Renfrew Street Campus

Content

The RCS three-year BA Acting programme is one of the leading actor-training programmes in the UK. Practical and intensive training will prepare you for a professional career as an actor on stage, on screen, on audio and other digital media platforms. You will collaborate with others to make new work and perform in public-facing productions. Your actor-training journey will be one of discovery, with an awareness of the world around you as an artist.

You will work intensively with our expert teaching staff to develop acting, voice, and movement skills, equipping you for a career in film, television, and theatre.
