Renfrew Street Campus

Content

BA Musical Theatre is a distinctive, conservatoire-level programme for talented students dedicated to developing their skills in acting, singing, dance and music. RCS are looking for students who want to train with them and aspire towards a career in the competitive musical theatre industry.

Your education will begin with a focus on core skills and processes. The aim is that you will graduate from this programme as a confident, versatile artist ready to work in the profession.

You will take part in industry workshops and classes which will allow you to develop your skillset in advance of two full-scale productions and an industry showcase in your final year of study.
