

Musical Theatre (Musical Directing)

Royal Conservatoire of Scotland

Venues

Renfrew Street Campus

Content

The musical directing pathway is designed to support the development of skill base and the exploration of creative thought for the musician with a passion for theatre. Through specialised conservatoire training, specific attention will be paid to grounding your keyboard and conducting skills, to exploring scoring and arranging, keyboard programming and vocal technique, all with a view to building the depth of process needed in the varying environments relevant to musical theatre. As well as practical performance training, we'll support you in the development of skills, knowledge, and contacts for your professional career as an imaginative and versatile artist.
