

Business Management

Abertay University

Content

This Business Management degree teaches you how to improve productivity, performance and profits. Develop all the business insights and expertise you need to position organisations for a sustainable future.

Through the university's outstanding industry links, you'll find out how businesses really operate via expert guest speakers, projects tackling real life business problems, work placements and offsite visits. You'll gain a deeper understanding of the complexities of business life by going beyond the classroom and working on extra-curricular activities such as the IBM international Business Challenge.
