Early Childhood (Top-Up)

Open University in Scotland

Content

Fast-track your career with our BA (Hons) Early Childhood Top-up, completed in just one or two years. Designed for experienced early years practitioners, this route lets you count previous study in a relevant subject towards your degree. You'll need a Foundation degree, Higher National Diploma or Diploma of Higher Education in Early Years/Early Childhood. Building on your prior learning and experience, you'll advance your professional development by completing two modules covering working with children and research with children and young people. Gain your qualification faster while laying a strong foundation for a fulfilling career with young children.
