City of Glasgow College

Venues

City Campus

Content

This 2 year HND course offers you the opportunity to develop your creative talents through the use of traditional and contemporary printmaking, diverse drawing processes and digital media.

Students explore key printmaking techniques and media and this activity is supplemented by technical and creative skills in digital media, drawing and mixed media as well as contextual studies.

The course combines practical skills with theoretical knowledge and is project based. It is delivered through a mixture of lectures, practical workshops and other creative activities. You will also produce a portfolio of work that will support entry to employment or degree level courses.
