

Photography (subject to approval)

Robert Gordon University

Content

This four year course is designed to improve your photographic skills in a professional and student-driven environment.

You will have the opportunity to test your skills within a choice of supported topic themes which are linked to live projects and industry liaison. The final major project allows for concentration on a specific theme, enabling you to develop a professional portfolio ready for promotion and exhibition.

The practical studio curriculum is supported by theoretical work to underpin your understanding of the context of photography in today's culture and creative economy. Business studies activities will support your practical understanding of the industry and enable you to develop the business acumen needed to start your own creative business.
