

Social Work

Robert Gordon University

Content

This course focuses on the values, skills and competencies required for the practice of social work to the qualifying level set by the Scottish Social Services Council (SSSC). It will give you the ability to positively impact society and improve the lives of individuals in an important profession.

The higher exit option (MSc) is an academic award based on research rather than a professional award, and offers a methodological underpinning for those seeking to move into research or training in social work.

You can exit after Stage 1 with PgCert Social Work.

You can exit after Stage 2 with PgDip Social Work.
