

Secondary Education (English) (PGDE)

University of Strathclyde

Content

Training to become an English teacher gives you the opportunity to share your passion for the subject, inspiring and shaping the lives of your students.

Teaching English at Secondary level gives you the opportunity to share your passion for your degree subject, open the hearts and minds of your students to new experiences and to develop in them a love of language and literature. You'll also develop their key literacy skills such as reading, writing, talking and listening which play an integral role in learning across the curriculum.

You'll spend 18 weeks of the course on placement in a school within Scotland. You'll be continually assessed while there to show you meet the requirements for the Standards for Provisional Registration.
