

Spanish (Combined)

University of Strathclyde

Content

With more than 500 million native speakers, Spanish is the second most commonly spoken language in the world. Speaking Spanish will help you conduct business more confidently in countries that are becoming increasingly important in world markets.

Studying this course will give you the chance to become a fluent linguist and, with our year abroad programme, an opportunity to experience living, working and/or studying in another country.

Year 1:

Two streams are offered – one for students with Higher Spanish or an equivalent qualification and another for beginners; both classes study contemporary Spanish language and aspects of the culture and society.

Year 2:

You develop further reading, writing, speaking and listening skills; in cultural classes study more about Isolation and Independence and the Struggle for Modernity in Spain and Latin America.

Year 3:

You have the opportunity to study abroad with one of our Spanish exchange partners; or continue your studies in Glasgow with a group project and advanced translation classes.

Year 4:

Year abroad in Spain, working as an English language assistant, or studying at one of our exchange partners.

Year 5:

Focus on translation, written and oral language and interpreting; cultural classes in areas such as The Latin American Short Story, Translation Studies: Key Debates, and Dictatorship and Resistance in Hispanic Cinema.
