Content

This innovative course is designed to give you an insight into a broad range of social science subjects. You will study Sociology, Psychology, Politics, History, Communication and Literature. As well as this you will sit Higher exams in Psychology and Sociology. You will gain transferable skills in critical thinking, problem solving and presentations; all of which are essential to progress in education. Successful completion of this Level 6 course (including passing both Highers with a B grade) guarantees you a place on the HNC Social Science and the chance to progress subsequently to university.

This is an academic course and you need to enjoy reading, writing and researching to succeed. You also need to be interested in all the subjects on the course.
