

Interior Architecture and Design

West College Scotland

Venues

Paisley Campus

Content

This course is an introduction to the practice of Interior Architecture. The course develops student's skills and creativity within interior projects, ranging from domestic to commercial interiors. Students develop ideas from conception to final design proposal for client presentation, problem solving, exploring the use of space, materials, finishes products, colour, and rendering techniques.

You'll learn about:

The practice of interior architecture; Domestic interiors; Commercial interiors; Developing ideas from concept to final designs; Problem solving; How to use space; Materials; Products and finishes; Colour; Rendering techniques; Creating a portfolio of your work; Working with live clients.

Start Date

August

Qualification

NC

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

1 year

Department

Interior Architecture

Entry Requirements

No formal entry requirements. Portfolio of work and interview.

SCQF Level

6

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Progression Routes

HNC 3D Design: Interior Architecture

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

Renfrew Road
Paisley
Renfrewshire
PA3 4DR

Website

www.westcollegescotland.ac.uk