

International Accounting and Management

Heriot-Watt University

Venues

Edinburgh Campus

Content

The aim of the programme is to enhance the research and employment potential of students in the areas of international accounting and management. This is achieved by combining key international business-focused accounting courses as well as management courses which examine the more strategic and quantitative aspects of management. This combination allows successful graduates to develop careers in various organizations, including private companies and the public sector, either as accountants in business or as financially skilled managers who intend to be promoted to more senior managerial positions.

You can exit at the end of 9 months with PgDip International Accounting and Management.
