Content

The BA Honours Acting with Creative Enterprise at New College Lanarkshire, in collaboration with Queen Margaret University (subject to validation) is aimed at students with excellent performance skills who are seeking to become professional performers in theatre, film and television.

Expert teaching staff retain close links with the industry and will provide you with the necessary training to develop the skills and versatility required to meet the vocal, physical and artistic demands required of a modern working performer.

This additional honours year aims to bridge the gap between degree and your chosen professional context while further developing the skills required to develop a sustainable arts practice and portfolio career. Students will be presented with the opportunity to use their practical and intellectual performance skills in a range of applied theatre contexts while developing the skills required to originate and develop new work.

You will learn:

Artistic development; Creative and cultural collaborations; Creative enterprise; Creative initiative.
