

Hospitality (SCQF Levels 4 and 5) (FA)

SCQF Level 4/5 (24 Credit Points)

Why Study a Foundation Apprenticeship?

Studying for a Foundation Apprenticeship gives you the chance to combine work based qualifications such as Scottish Vocational Qualifications (SVQs) or National Certificate (NC) with practical work experience in industry.

Who Can Apply?

The Foundation Apprenticeship (FA) in Hospitality is for pupils staying on at school. You can choose this FA as one of your subjects in S3 - S6.

Entry Requirements

These vary depending on which year you are in when you start the Foundation Apprenticeship. It could range from no formal entry requirements to some subjects at National 3 or 4. Check with your school for details.

Course Content

You will learn about different aspects of the hospitality industry, such as working in a kitchen, working in front of house and planning and working in an event, customer care skills and food hygiene.

You will develop skills and knowledge through completion of a Skills for Work (SfW) National Subject in Hospitality as well as working closely with an employer.

Qualifications Gained

- A Skills for Work award (SfW) in Hospitality at SCQF Level 4 or SCQF level 5
- A Work Based Challenge Skills unit at SCQF Level 4 or SCQF Level 5

Duration

Usually 1 year.

What can I go on to next?

There are several progression routes after completing the FA in Hospitality:

- a related Modern Apprenticeship - see options here
- a related further education course at college
- straight into an entry level job.

How to Apply

To apply for a Foundation Apprenticeship you should complete an application form through your school. You may be required to attend an interview and complete a relevant aptitude test.

Have a look at the apprenticeships.scot website to see what your school offers and to enquire.

Related Career Areas

- Hospitality, Leisure and Tourism