South Lanarkshire College

South Lanarkshire College is situated in the Scottish Enterprise Technology Park in East Kilbride, at a custom-built state-of-the-art campus. The college is home to 5,000 students, 400 staff and offers over 150 full and part time courses each year.

In addition to the wide range of learning opportunities available on campus, the college also works with community groups, voluntary organisations and other agencies to provide a variety of community-based courses throughout Lanarkshire.

Courses and subjects

The levels of courses taught include NC, SVQs, HNC, HND, and more recently, degree.

Courses are taught in a range of subject areas, including: Accounting and Finance; Administration and IT; Beauty Therapy; Brickwork; Business; Carpentry and Joinery; Childcare and Early Education; Civil Engineering; Construction Management; Counselling; English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL); Gas and Renewables; Hairdressing and Barbering; Health, Social Care and Nursing; Horticulture; Hospitality; Languages and Maths; Legal Services; Make-Up Artistry; Painting and Decorating; Photography, Creative Industries and Digital Media; Plastering and Roofing; Plumbing; Police Studies; Professional Cookery; Quantity Surveying; Science; Social Science; Social Services and Care; Supported Programmes; and, Travel and Tourism.

Facilities and services

The college has a library and learning centre, cafeteria, coffee bar, shop, social areas with comfortable seating and plasma information screens, a quiet room, on campus parking and a nursery.

There is also an advice centre where students can get guidance and support in a range of areas.

Course training facilities include construction workshops, the training restaurant (Café Bistro), an outdoor horticulture garden and a salon and spa.

Contact Details

College Way
East Kilbride
G75 0NE
Tel: 01355 270 750
Email: applications@slc.ac.uk
Website: www.slc.ac.uk
Twitter: @SLCek
Facebook: www.facebook.com/SLCek