Borders College

Borders College has three main campuses: Scottish Border Campus (Galashiels), Newtown St Boswells and Tweedbank. It is the regional college for the Scottish Borders.

The Hawick campus is being taken over by South of Scotland Enterprise (SOSE) to transform into a cutting-edge Innovation and Advanced Manufacturing Hub.

The main campuses are supported by a number of community based learning facilities throughout the Scottish Borders.

Courses and subjects
The college offers a wide range of courses from introductory and foundation level, through to HND. Courses are available on a full and part time basis. Some courses provide direct entry into a degree programme at university.

There are courses offered under a wide range of departments including: Art and Design; Beauty and Hairdressing; Business and Computing; Care and Education; Catering and Hospitality; Childcare; Construction; Engineering and Motor Vehicle; Gamekeeping; Horse and Animal Care; Horticulture and Landscaping; Landbased Industries; Sports and Exercise; and, Supported Programmes.

Facilities and services

Scottish Borders Campus provides a unique learning and teaching environment, offering practical training areas, including a state-of-the-art hair and beauty salon and training restaurant, a modern well stocked library and learning resource centre, enhanced IT facilities and bright, spacious student social areas.

The Newtown St Boswells Campus offers students studying landbased courses access to industry specialist practical areas, and a dedicated learning resources centre, offering high quality training facilities to meet the needs of an ever changing rural and landbased sector.

The Tweedbank Campus is home to the Construction Hub.

Specialisms
The Scottish Borders Campus in Galashiels hosts Heriot-Watt University's world renowned School of Textiles and Design. This enables both the college and university to benefit from excellent shared facilities. Newtown St Boswells Campus is a well recognised centre of excellence for landbased studies.
