University of the Highlands and Islands (UHI)

The University of the Highlands and Islands (UHI) is an integrated university which combines further and higher education, making it the only institution of its kind in Scotland. It offers a broader range of options than any single college or university can through its partnership of 10 colleges and research centres, across the Highlands and Islands, Moray and Perthshire.

With some of the best online learning technologies available, learning at UHI means you can complete courses from home or work, anywhere across the world. Study full time or even part time or online, making learning while you earn a practical option.

You can study at one of their 11 campuses based at some of the most stunning locations in the UK.

The campuses are:

- UHI Argyll
- UHI Inverness
- UHI Moray
- UHI North, West and Hebrides
- UHI Orkney
- UHI Perth
- UHI Shetland
- HTC (Highland Theological College)
- Sabhal Mòr Ostaig
- Scottish Association for Marine Science (SAMS)
- UHI House.

Courses and students

UHI offers HNC, HND, degree and postgraduate courses taught through the following subject areas (FE Level courses are listed under individual colleges).

Subject areas include:

- Business and Computing

Creative Industries
Education, Child and Youth Studies
Engineering, Construction and Technology
Gaelic Language and Culture
Health and Wellbeing
History, Heritage and Social Studies
Science, Nature and the Environment
Sports, Adventure and Tourism.

The UHI has around 36,000 students across higher and further education (2024/25 figures). Their learning is supported through a network of local learning centres throughout the mainland and island communities. Centres are linked by the newest communications technologies, so wherever you study, teaching and support are the same.

Facilities and Services

Every campus has its own learning and teaching facilities including libraries and study areas. They have restaurants and sport and fitness facilities for students to use. See each of the campus websites for details of each individual campus.

Ranking

The University ranked 4th in Scotland for undergraduate student satisfaction in the 2025 National Student Survey (NSS).
